Speaks of a Inreat.

"I call the Court's attention to the fact that before my client was arrested Adolph Boscawitz, brother of the man who is suing Mr. Sulzbacher in the civil courts, sald to him:

"I will have you locked up all night, no matter what it costs.' And my client was locked up, just as he predicted. He was arrested at 9 o'clock at night and taken before Magistrate Corrigan, who refused to acept bail, though Mr. Sulzbacher had $5,000 in his storting at the time."

The Assisant District-Attorney made many interruptions while Osborne was talking. He denied that Mr. Boscawitz could have made any threat concerning Sulzbacher's arrest, as Boscawitz was in in no way responsible for his arrest.

WASHINGTON, May 20 .- A camp o instruction for regular and militia troops will be established at Pine Plains. Jefferson County, New York, June 15, and will extend until July 15. Dismounted troops will march 200 miles one way, or 100 miles each way; mounted troops, 250 miles one way, or 150 miles each way.

It is the purpose of the department to approximate conditions of field service in time of war. The flooring of tents and the like semi-permanent arrangements are therefore not authorized, and the maximum of drills is enjoined, with the minimum of formal ceremonies and a oal absence of merely specacular exhibitions.

BUFFALO BILL'S JUBILEE.

Noted Men Attend, and Quentin Rides in Deadwood Coach.

WASHINGTON, May 20 .- Col. William F. Cody's twenty-fifth anniversary as an exhibitor of typical American wild life was celebrated yesterday in Washington, the anniversary performances of Buffalo Bill's show being attended by Buffalo Bill's show being attended by members of the President's family, by Gen. Eugene A. Carr, Gen. Wesiey Merritt any twenty other general officers of the army with whom Col. Cody served in the early days on the West, ern plains, and by Cabinet officers, Senators and Representatives in Congress and officials of all branches of the Government.

Quentin Roosevelt rode in the Deadwood coach and made the acquaintance of the noted Indian chiefs with the show.

JOHNSON'S BIG VOTE IN ALABAMA A MARVEL

(Special to The Evening World.) MOBILE, Ala., May 20 .- A full cour of the Mobile County vote shows that Gov. Johnson, of Minnesota, carried the Gov. Johnson, of Minnesota, carried the county by a majority of 1,103. This is a remarkable victory, in view of the fact that Johnson's fight was begun only four days before election and only one political rally was held. In many precincts Bryan rot no votes at all. Dr. R. McCunningham, a Johnson delegate, has been elected. He received 1,820 votes in this county.

All the Prohibition candidates were overwhelmingly defeated, John A. Lusk, a State leader, receiving the smallest vote for Supreme Court Judge.

"Foot Mould" Shoes---A Stock Adjustment

Some Regular $3.50 Styles at $3. Many $3 Styles at $1.95 WE often take great liberties with the prices of other well known shoes, but a reduced price on our own "Foot Mould" footwear is seen only twice a way of other well known shoes, but a reduced price on our own "Foot Mould' footwear is seen only twice a year—in the stock adjustments of the spring and fall.

"Foot Mould" Shoes are sold at prices so close to their actual cost that a reduced price is practically a merchandising impossibility except on accumulations of odd lots which we close out at these times. Several hundred pairs of our best-selling $3.50 styles have been put into the $3 class for to-morrow's selling. These represent a dozen or more shapes and fashions in high shoes for both men and women. Among these are many buckle Oxfords, and fully one half are in tan leathers. Several hundred pairs of regular $3 "Foot Mould" shoes and patent leather Oxfords are in the same way added to an already remarkable for of women's shoes we are selling at This lot contains, besides the $3 "Foot Mouids," some beautiful sample footwear, worth up to $5.
